DESCRIPTION

Discover this beautiful 21 acre estate just outside the city limits, offering the perfect blend of country living with convenience to town. The property's picturesque topography is highlighted by a large stock pond at the entrance, complete with a metal bridge that provides a grand drive up approach to the home. At the heart of the property sits a very well maintained brick home, providing comfort and charm. This home offers a spacious living room that seamlessly flows through the dining room and into the large eat in kitchen. A finished tiny home next to the main residence adds versatility. Ideal as in law quarters, a private guest retreat, or a home office. Those needing workspace, this property boasts a large workshop with concrete floor and utilities, along with multiple outbuildings and stables ready for horses and other livestock. Adding to the appeal, the land includes an unfinished barndominium, already framed and ready for your personal touch whether you envision extra living space, rental potential, or a custom entertainment area. This one of a kind property offers endless opportunities; country living, working, and entertaining all in one place.
