DESCRIPTION

Designed with both daily living and entertaining in mind, the home opens into expansive living spaces that seamlessly connect indoors and out. A thoughtfully designed courtyard and outdoor living areas invite you to enjoy peaceful mornings, evening gatherings, and year-round entertaining, creating a true "home and host" experience. The heart of the home features a chef's kitchen complemented by a butler's kitchen, oversized pantry, and a bar area just off the main living space—perfect for hosting game days, holidays, or intimate dinners. Just beyond, a downstairs game room offers space for ping pong, multiple TVs, and movie nights, making it a natural gathering place for family and friends. The primary suite is a private retreat, complete with a spa-like bath and a highly desirable private laundry located directly within the primary closet. A dedicated home gym, multiple offices for work-from-home flexibility, and exceptional storage throughout add to the home's functional design. Upstairs, the layout is ideal for families, featuring a large game room and thoughtfully arranged bedrooms. Two upstairs bedrooms offer private en-suite baths, while a third bedroom is connected via a Jack-and-Jill bath to a kids' game room, complete with bunks, making it ideal for family holidays. A second full laundry room upstairs provides everyday convenience for the secondary bedrooms. The oversized four-car garage connects through a locker room and mudroom, thoughtfully designed to support busy lifestyles. In addition, a separate private guest suite—located across the garage with its own bath and private back porch entry—offers an ideal setup for extended family, long-term guests, or a live-in assistant, providing privacy and independence while remaining connected to the main home. Situated in Bella Crossing, this highly sought-after neighborhood is just outside the city limits. The home offers privacy, peace, and quiet while maintaining easy access to Fort Worth.
