DESCRIPTION

Set on a quiet, one-way street in the heart of West Kessler, feeding to acclaimed Rosemont Elementary, this thoughtfully reimagined 1940 residence seamlessly blends timeless architecture with modern sophistication. Spanning over 3,100 SF, the home has been meticulously renovated with a designer's eye and attention to every detail. A substantial 2021 addition preserved architectural integrity while enhancing livability. Additional highlights include updated HVAC, roof, and plumbing systems, as well as an oversized laundry room with sink. The main level features a private primary suite with a spa-inspired bath, including a soaking tub within oversized walk-in shower, custom closet, and herringbone wood floors. Designed for effortless living and entertaining, multiple living areas connect seamlessly around a striking wraparound wet bar with wine refrigerator. An enclosed sunroom functions as a dual home office with built-in storage, while a first-floor ensuite bedroom offers ideal flexibility for guests or multigenerational living. The chef's kitchen offers professional-grade stainless appliances, leathered granite countertops, a prep island, walk-in pantry, and access to the screened porch. A formal dining room with arched openings flows easily into the kitchen and entertaining spaces. Upstairs, a spacious sitting room anchors a thoughtfully designed split-bedroom layout. Two secondary bedrooms share an updated bath with dual sinks and shower. A charming 100 sq ft dormer nook offers the perfect space for reading, play, or a quiet retreat for kids. Outdoor living shines with a screened-in patio, deck, and soaking pool with low-maintenance composite decking, along with ample yard space for play. Zoned to top schools, including Rosemont Elementary and The Kessler School. Just minutes from Stevens Park Golf Course, Bishop Arts District, and neighborhood favorites, and set on peaceful street that feels removed from it all—truly one of Oak Cliff's best kept secrets.
